CHILDREN MAKING A DIFFERENCE

Ella Rob celebrated her 6th birthday by collecting food and cash donations for KLFS.

Owen Davis also collected cash donations for KLFS in lieu of his birthday presents.

Invest in your community by volunteering!

Volunteers are the backbone of our organization.

Interested? Go to our 'How To Help' section on our website (www.kawarthalakesfoodsource.com) for more info or call our Volunteer Coordinator at 705-324-0707.

GOT EXTRAS?

Kawartha Lakes Food Source would be pleased to take your produce! In turn, we will distribute it to our member agencies.

A one day food drive at Giant Tiger netted 728 lbs. of food and $669.00!

Many thanks to the customers who donated on June 16th.

Cathy Allan Ladies Wear put on a fashion show for the ladies of Rivermill Village. Proceeds from the ticket sales were donated to KLFS. The organizers are L-R: Joyce Taylor, Alice Simpson, Nora Duncan, Marilyn Beacock-White, Carol Fulton and June Sale. Bouquets to you!

On Thursday, May 19th KLFS was happy to celebrate at the annual Ontario Volunteer Service awards with some of our KLFS volunteers. The event took place at the Lindsay Armoury where our nominees were awarded for years of service with our organization. Each year we are able to nominate up to 6 individuals from the organization for this honour. Nominees are awarded for years of service in categories of 5 year increments.

This year our recipients were (pictured from left to right): Marg Swaine—5 years; Pauline Burns—5 years; Darlene Hallett—15 years and Susan Simpson—5 years.

Unable to attend: Rosemary Schubert—5years and Jane Schulist-Green—5 years

CONGRATULATIONS and many thanks!

Scott Littlejohn and Lesley Bourassa, KLFS warehouse staff, were each awarded the Trillium Lakeshore District School Board Character Award. These awards are presented to staff or school community members who model good character and active citizenship. They were nominated by IE Weldon SS.

Kawartha Credit Union made their annual contribution to further KLFS mission. Pictured (l-r): Tanya Ardon, Jenn Bianco, Michelle Finley, Manager, KCU, Trevor Hutchison, KLFS Fundraising Committee, Rebecca Goddard, KLFS Funding Researcher.
